Career Pathways for Students with Disabilities (CPSD)

The Career Pathways for Students with Disabilities (CPSD) is a program for students who identify as having a disability and are currently employed by the federal public service.

The program features support for onboarding, a mentorship program, workshops, and support services designed for both students and managers/supervisors.

The following are some of the supports offered:

- Onboarding
- Mentorship program
- Learning and career development events
- Tools for managers

For more information, visit the Career Pathways for Students with Disabilities (https://gcxgce.sharepoint.com/teams/10003659/SitePages/Home.aspx) GCXchange page (reserved for students with disabilities in the public service and accessible from a government of Canada network).
